One mission, many branches of service

Joe Stanislav, President and CEO

Most of you know Our Lady of Peace because a loved one was cared for through one of our programs, either our in-patient hospice, our community hospice, our home care or our Highland Block Nurse Program. You may not be aware of the programs we offer that you have not accessed.

Our in-patient hospice, Our Lady of Peace Home, provides twenty-four-hour a day, residential hospice care including Medicare-certified general inpatient care. Families are not charged for their loved ones' care or room and board. Our care teams consist of a physician, nurse, social worker, pastoral care director, bereavement services and pharmacist.

Our community hospice, Our Lady of Peace Hospice, offers Medicare-certified hospice services to those in need who are living at home, in senior communities, or long-term care facilities. Our hospice care team makes our patients' final days, weeks or months as peaceful and comfortable as possible.

Our Lady of Peace Medicare-certified Home Health serves those recovering from injury or illness who require extra assistance at home. We provide skilled nursing care (RN), medication management, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy and wound care. Palliative care is also available.

The Highland Block Nurse Program has been serving older adults and their caregivers in the Highland Park neighborhood of St. Paul since 1987. We now also serve the Macalester-Groveland neighborhood south of St. Clair Avenue. Our goal is to help people remain in their own homes or apartments as long as possible. We provide a wide variety of services including in-home registered nurse and home-health aide visits, escorted rides to appointments, grocery shopping and other errands along with caregiver support and respite.

As a Catholic, not-for-profit organization, Our Lady of Peace is governed by a volunteer board of directors. Our board guides Our Lady of Peace's performance toward established goals in a manner consistent with the organization's mission, values and vision. But our staff and volunteers cannot continue to provide exceptional care without your support. Thanks for your past generosity, and we pray that we will deserve it in the future.

A privilege and a responsibility

Ed Martini, Board of Directors Chair

Our Lady of Peace Home is dedicated to caring for persons with terminal illness. This simple yet profound calling has continued unaltered since the Home's founding in 1941 by the Dominican Sisters of Hawthorne. It is a humbling privilege to be considered worthy and entrusted with the precious ending days of an individual's life. Such trust is earned by the governance of a capable, dedicated Board of Directors and the continuous compassionate care giving by our well-qualified staff so ably supported by an incredible cadre of volunteers.

Our Lady of Peace has been able to maintain, enhance and advance the founding commitment of the Sisters of Hawthorne because of the stewardship – time, talent and treasure – of generously supportive family, friends, organizations and agencies, most of whom have experienced Our Lady of Peace and are moved to help perpetuate our mission, vision and values. Your enabling gifts are truly appreciated.

You are strongly encouraged to graciously and generously contribute to Our Lady of Peace so we may continue our current programs and services and to help extend our outreach further into the communities we serve. An additional way of giving – The Rose of Hawthorne Legacy Society – is premiered for you in this issue of The Journey. Please give a legacy gift your sincere consideration and you will be blessed as you bless and benefit Our Lady of Peace!

The Rose Hawthorne Legacy Society launches

The Rose Hawthorne Legacy Society

The question we are most often asked here at Our Lady of Peace Hospice is: What can I do? How can I best support this place?

Once you have experienced this sacred space, you may be compelled to help secure its future. "This place is unique," says an 87-year-old priest who supports Our Lady financially. "It has a prayerful atmosphere with very caring people. It's a good place to be as we're approaching death."

Here is our answer to those friends of Our Lady seeking to make a difference: There is something you can do that will have the greatest impact. A legacy gift – a gift made through your will – is the most important gift you can make. It delivers crucial benefits to Our Lady of Peace at no cost to you during your lifetime. It ensures that this place can continue to offer high-quality end-of-life care at no cost to anyone in need. It is the gift that keeps giving.

The Rose Hawthorne Legacy Society was founded in memory of Our Lady's foundress, Rose Hawthorne, to honor benefactors who have created personal legacies at Our Lady of Peace through an estate gift or planned gift.

Anyone can join the Legacy Society; it is not limited to those in an upper tax bracket. For some people, it is the only way they can afford to give – and it will have the greatest impact.

Please see the insert in this newsletter for an explanation of ways to become a member of this special initiative. Donations made through these channels have the ultimate effect on Our Lady of Peace, ensuring its very future.

Even if you already have a will, you can easily add Our Lady of Peace to it by using a simple codicil. We would be happy to provide you with sample language.

We invite you to join the Rose Hawthorne Society and make the difference of a lifetime.

To learn more about this special way of giving, please contact Our Lady of Peace Development Department. Lisa Sweeney can be reached at 651-789-6826 or lisas@ourladyofpeacemn.org.

"In addition to volunteering there, we have included OLP in our will. We truly believe in their mission to provide high quality end-of-life care for all, regardless of race and religion. It's a magical place filled to the brim with peace, serenity and loving care."

Going to the chapel...again

Patient Profile

Pale winter sunlight slants through the chapel windows at Our Lady of Peace and illuminates an unlikely wedding scene. A bride stands beside her groom at the altar, but the groom cannot stand. He is resting in a Geri Chair — part hospital bed, part wheelchair — studying his wife's face as she listens to a priest recite the sacred words that first united the couple nearly 23 years ago.

Bob and Pauline Rodger

Our Lady patient Bob Rodger and his wife, Pauline, are renewing their wedding vows. Bob says it was Pauline's idea, but Pauline smiles at him and says she didn't have to twist his arm too hard.

"He's a romantic," she whispers.

Bob rolls his eyes.

Pauline catches him in the act and starts to giggle. Pretty soon they both are laughing.

It doesn't take long to figure out that these two get a kick out of each other, and, even after more than two decades of marriage, are still very much in love. The news in October 2016 that Bob had non-operable small-cell lung cancer was devastating for the couple, and a few months later, following a hospital stay and admission to Our Lady, they had to face the reality that Bob might not be alive to celebrate their anniversary in February.

"Not knowing how long we would have to keep sharing the love we have for each other and the fun and enjoyment we have together made us want to do this," Pauline says of their decision to renew their vows. Once that decision was made, Our Lady staff members were eager to help this special couple with their special wish. Things moved quickly.

Spiritual Director Amy Cotter found a priest to officiate. Social worker Theo Page walked the couple down the aisle. Nurse Marti Davies RN was recruited to read Scripture, and flowers plucked from a vase on the front reception desk served double-duty as a bridal bouquet. What the ceremony lacked in traditional wedding trappings it made up for in meaning and sincerity.

"It was just wonderful," Pauline says. "The staff was so helpful. For the rest of the day, after the ceremony, they kept calling us the newlyweds."

Editor's note: On Feb. 12, Bob and Pauline celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary with a special candlelight dinner at a table for two in the first-floor guest lounge. They shared two and half more months as husband and wife, and on May 3, Bob died in Pauline's arms. "I said, 'Honey, it's OK to let go. I'll be OK.' His eyes had been closed, but when I said that, he opened them and looked up at me, then he was gone."

Kids discover a spirit of giving at Our Lady of Peace

Donor Profile

There's something about Our Lady of Peace that leaves an impression on even its youngest visitors: the serene atmosphere, the continuous service, the dignity of each patient.

Visiting the hospice can spark a spirit of giving among children, paving the way to a lifetime of giving — and remembering.

Hong Min Chu (center) surrounded by his loved ones at the zoo: his wife, Grace, his son, Howard, his daughter-in-law, Jen, and his beloved granddaughters, Norah, Marin, Lydia and Hillary.

Howard and Jen Chu's four daughters visited their grandfather, Hong Min Chu — affectionately known by his Chinese moniker Ye Ye — every day at the hospice. He stayed for a month, during August 2016, before dying from colorectal cancer.

"My father-in-law was very hesitant to go [to Our Lady], but as soon as he arrived, he experienced a peacefulness," Jen recounted. "For our girls to watch these nurses take such special care of him — it was a good feeling for them. They had been so worried about him."

The Chu girls — Norah, now 11; Marin, 9; Lydia, 6; and Hillary, 4 — of Chanhassen made the hospice their second home that summer, playing cards in the porch, singing to their beloved Ye Ye and visiting with the staff. Ye Ye came up with the idea to give the girls a parting gift of a new puppy: a 7-week-old Labradoodle they named Hazel. To watch them frolicking together in the courtyard, which his room overlooked, brought joy to his final days — and a glimpse into the future he would be missing.

"It was a beautiful experience for us," Jen said.

After his death, Marin decided to donate four months of her allowance to Our Lady. She wanted to offer up her earnings from household chores to a good cause. Marin also decided to donate money from her hóngbāo — a red envelope containing money given during the holidays, as is Chinese custom — bringing her total gift to around $100, a formidable donation for a then 8-year-old.

"We felt proud," Jen said, "but we weren't surprised. We knew she understood how well Ye Ye was cared for."

Our Lady stretched the Chu girls' hearts, and there's no telling the long-term impact, Jen said. The firstborn talks about oncology as a career prospect.

For 10-year-old Annika Clift of Minneapolis, Our Lady offered a similar opportunity to experience the power of giving. Her grandmother introduced her to the hospice, having learned about it through her friend Father Eugene Michel, O.F.M., former pastor of Sacred Heart Church in St. Paul, who was a patient there last year.

Annika is a Girl Scout, and her grandma decided it would be rewarding to donate a case of Girl Scout cookies to Our Lady of Peace. Annika's aunt got in on the good deed, and the family ended up donating three cases of cookies, or 36 boxes, which cost $144.

■ Archbishop Hebda makes his first visit to Our Lady

During his first visit to Our Lady of Peace hospice, Archbishop Bernard Hebda celebrated a Blessing of the Hands ceremony.

The eleventh bishop of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis, Archbishop Hebda visited in March. All staff members were invited to receive a special blessing to honor the many ways their work contributes to the physical, spiritual and emotional needs of our patients.

Archbishop Bernard Hebda was born in Pittsburgh in 1959. He earned a bachelor's degree from Harvard and a juris doctor degree from Columbia University School of Law. The following year he enrolled in seminary, and he was ordained to the priesthood in 1989. His expertise in canon law proved valuable as a priest, and over the years he also served as a campus minister and spiritual director to college students. He was named bishop of the Diocese of Gaylord in 2009 and was installed as Archbishop of St. Paul and Minneapolis in 2016.

Annika made the trip with her mom, Laurel, last February. Patients and staff cheered at the sight of the spunky fourth grader, smiling widely with her cookies. "We were there to bring them some love," Laurel said.

The gift was one of sweetness and nostalgia, she added. "So many people have a positive memory of Girl Scout cookies. The nostalgia brings it home for a lot of people – and who doesn't need a snack, especially at a rough time? It was a special experience for us."

Now a fifth-grader at St. Helena Catholic School in Minneapolis, Annika will be selling cookies again this winter – and would love to deliver some to Our Lady, if anyone is interested in ordering them through her (with help from her parents, Laurel and Steve, parents@cliftnotes.org).

Lisa Sweeney, Director of Development, accepts generous proceeds from The St. Agnes Penny War project.

Giving begets giving, they said, and Our Lady fit into the family's broader, ongoing discussion about service and charitable deeds.

It also entered into the conversation at St. Agnes Catholic School in St. Paul, where middle schoolers last year took up fundraising for the hospice as their Lenten mission project and grade schoolers embarked in a Penny War to raise money. The annual competition between grades has students bringing in pennies or dollar bills for a good cause. "Word spread about Our Lady of Peace and what they do to help the community," said Mary Jackson, who graduated from St. Agnes last year and helped with the Penny War. "The kids were able to work together to help a worthy cause. It caused a stronger bond among the grades and, through the competition, the kids learned that giving of your time, talent or – in this case, treasure – can be a joyful experience."

In total, St. Agnes students raised $3,000 for Our Lady. "When I heard the total raised, my jaw dropped," said Evan Most, a senior and the Service Club Chair. "It totally exceeded any expectations I had. The look on Lisa Sweeney's face when we told her the amount was amazing."

Supporting a local hospice is an important part of their spiritual development, says Joan Decker, a longtime volunteer at Our Lady of Peace who recently retired from 20 years of teaching at St. Agnes. "The students can drive by and stop in if they want and say, 'I've been involved here. This is part of our archdiocese.'"

■ One-of-a-kind bears provide comfort and connection

OLOPH – pronounced Olaf – is a new addition to our Bereavement Services Team. In an effort to offer non-traditional grief support options, Our Lady of Peace staff worked closely with Mattson Funeral Home to learn about the process behind its successful Heartly Bear program where people make keepsake teddy bears from a loved one's clothing. Mattson has been offering this service to their families for many years and generously offered their time, volunteers and patterns to help train OLP staff.

Since February, OLP volunteers have helped create more than 50 of these beautiful little bears for families we have served here who lost a loved one. Participants are asked to bring cherished articles of clothing to the workshop where, with help from a team of skilled volunteers, they will make a one-of-a-kind keepsake to honor the memory of a family member or friend.

The new program has been embraced, according to Bereavement Coordinator Debbie Swanson.

"The response has been overwhelmingly positive," she said. "We encourage participants to tell stories about their loved one as they create this special bear. We share tears and laughter. It is a different way of expressing grief and experiencing healing."

The name OLOPH, an acronym for Our Lady Of Peace Home, was the idea of volunteer Louise Fester, who has taken a lead role in organizing the workshop.

"This workshop would be impossible to pull off if it were not for volunteers like Louise," said Swanson, who hopes to offer the event three times per year.

Interested volunteers who can sew are encouraged to contact Bereavement Services at 651-789-5032 or debbies@ourladyofpeace.org.

Teddy bears made from the clothing of an Our Lady of Peace patient are a special new offering, thanks to a dedicated team of volunteers.

■ Clarifying the function of palliative care: offering hope

By Laura Lathrop, DNP, MPH

"What is palliative care?" I hear this question often. People fear suggesting palliative care to loved ones or friends because it might be interpreted as suggesting hospice or advice that sounds like a last resort when there is no hope of recovery. But palliative care is not the same as hospice care. It is an option of hope, symptom control and support for those with serious medical conditions and their families while still in the treatment mode.

Palliative care is a relatively new medical specialty, and since the early 2000s, it has been established in most urban hospitals. Teams are made up of nurse practitioners, physicians, social workers and chaplains.

If you are hospitalized and have questions about the benefits and burdens of treatments and interventions being offered and would like support with decision-making – or if you have questions about your illness and managing distressing symptoms – you may ask for a palliative-care consultation.

Palliative care services outside of the hospital are new and in a growth phase. Families used to tell me in the hospital that they wished they had seen a palliative care provider before the hospitalization so they could have learned about all the options and resources available for care.

Our Lady of Peace is currently working with Laura Lathrop to explore the possibility of a palliative care program in our organization.

It takes a village

By Kelly Pietrzak, LSW

Over my nine years at Our Lady of Peace, we have been given many accolades for the outstanding care we provide to our clients. Oftentimes, many people are overlooked when praise is given. The love and dedication of our staff and community surrounds each client who entrusts their care to us.

In my work with my clients, I try to find the things that matter to them. What brings them hope and joy? What do they value? How do they continue to find meaning as their lives draw to a close? This is one example that demonstrates how the help of so many can make the remaining days of each person count.

Mr. Paul Thury – or PJ, as he was known – appeared to be a stereotypical Vietnam veteran. He was a bit gruff, his beard ran half way down his torso and he had a passion for motorcycles. (He owned two Harley Davidsons.) What surprised me most about PJ was not his bandanas or leather jackets but his deep love for his cat, Morris.

When I met PJ and Morris they were both a little rough around the edges. I liked to call them “my old men.” PJ had adopted Morris several years before I met him. During our first conversations, PJ told me his goal was to stay with Morris until he died. Little did I realize all the hands that would play a part in making this happen!

PJ had been ill for several years and had received help from a number of people. Lisa Harer was PJ’s Independent Living Services worker, and she made sure that both old men had enough to eat every week and that the bills were getting paid.

PJ was concerned about Morris’ health and confided in me that he did not have the money to pay for vet bills. I volunteered to make a few phone calls. The first call was to the ever resourceful Paula Fisher from the Highland Block Nurse Program. Paula put me in touch with Vickie Lachelt at Feline Rescue. Vicki said that Feline Rescue would pay for a complete physical at Larpenteur Veterinary Clinic in Minneapolis so the next steps could be determined. We had the vet appointment, but the next concern was how would we get them there.

Sue Knoblauch, a Feline Rescue volunteer, agreed to drive PJ and Morris to their appointment. Sue coordinated the visit and arranged her work schedule to make the 40-mile round trip. To PJ’s relief, it was established that Morris was healthy except for seven teeth that needed to be extracted. The question was raised if paying for this surgery was the best use of Feline Rescue’s limited resources. Once the importance of the relationship between PJ and Morris was explained, they decided to fund the procedure so the two friends could remain together for the rest of PJ’s days.

Paul Thury with his daughter, Jamie, and Mr. Morris.

Morris survived his surgery but was not feeling well. PJ’s caretakers saw Morris struggling after the surgery and began providing support to Morris as well. As Morris began to feel better, PJ’s illness worsened, and eventually PJ was transferred to Our Lady of Peace Residential Hospice. This separated the friends, which was exactly what PJ had so desperately wished to avoid.

Our volunteer department came to the rescue! Morris was brought to PJ by our volunteers Deann Lindstrom, Michelle Buron, and Jane Theilan. These wonderful women sat with “my old men” and made sure that they were comfortable and that visits went well. Even in PJ’s last days of life, Morris came to visit and would sit faithfully by his friend’s side (albeit under the covers) so PJ was never alone.

I would like to personally thank all those involved in the care of PJ and Morris: Lisa Harer of the Courage Kenny Rehabilitation Institute; Amy Halstenson-Bache and Darla Recht-Segelstrom of the VA Home and Community Care; Traci Boser of the VA Foster Care Program; Cindy Hawkenson the VA Hospice Coordinator; Vickie Lachelt and Sue Knoblauch of Feline Rescue; Paula Fisher of the Highland Block Program; Sharon from Optage Meals; Senior Home Health Care; Lynette Baker, Leann Lindstrom, Michelle Buron, Jane Theilan and Kim Perez of Our Lady of Peace Hospice; all the staff at Larpenteur Veterinary Clinic; and PJ’s children Jamie and Joe Thury. Each of these people worked hard to keep PJ and Morris at home for as long as possible and then to keep them together when circumstances threatened to separate them. They each made a difference in the lives of two dear old men.

Celebrating Sister Polsy’s jubilee

Sister Polsy celebrated 50 years of service to the Catholic Church with a staff reception in July. She joined the Franciscan Clarist Congregation in 1967.

Since moving from India to the United States in 2003, Sister Polsy has been a dedicated member of the Our Lady care staff. For her jubilee year, she returned to her homeland, where she was honored by members of the Franciscan Clarist order (see photo at right).

With gratitude, we thank Sister Polsy for sharing her gifts of compassion and mercy with thousands of patients at Our Lady of Peace.

In her own words

A warm welcome

“When I came here in 2003, the Dominican Sisters of Hawthorne were so kind.”

A rewarding job

“I like to work with the patients, to know that I’m helping.”

On death

“There is sadness, but I also feel their celebration. They are often waiting to see a parent, a spouse or a sibling. There is no more pain, and God is welcoming them into heaven.”

Her go-to prayers

“I am always meditating on The Our Father and the Hail Mary at the end of a patient’s life. ‘Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.’”

Joe Stanislav marks 25 years

Our Lady of Peace staff, former colleagues, friends, and family gathered in June for a surprise celebration to honor Our Lady of Peace President Joe Stanislav as he celebrated 25 years of service with the organization.

The gathering provided a wonderful opportunity to reminisce and reflect.

“From the first moment I joined Our Lady of Peace, I felt the legacy of the founding sisters to be strong, and I wanted to help perpetuate the mission for the future,” Stanislav said.

Joe Stanislav’s daughter, Anna Nordlund, gives her dad a congratulatory hug.

Bathing room renovation complete!

A huge thank you to all the donors who have made this dream into a reality! The second-floor bathing room is complete, the first floor is well underway, and the first patient who used the new room spoke for all of us at Our Lady of Peace when he crossed the threshold and said, “Oh, wow!”

...AFTER!!!

From the Development Desk

Lisa Sweeney, Director of Development

What a year! Once again, I’ve been humbled by the generosity of our donors, and thrilled to see the many ways their gifts are put into action.

Proceeds from the 2016 75th Anniversary Gala have been turned into beautiful new bathing rooms for our patients (see page 9). Plans are also underway to increase privacy in our patient rooms. I’m especially excited to announce the beginning of our new Rose Hawthorne Legacy Society and donor wall, created to recognize friends who help us through planned giving options.

Every gift we receive is important, but gifts that fall into the category of planned giving, such as wills and estate gifts, make the most significant difference to our long-term financial viability. Often, when families leave OLP, perhaps for the last time, they stop by my office and tell me how grateful they are for the care their loved one received. They want to do something to give back, but funds are tight. For these people, I always suggest planned giving—leaving a gift to Our Lady of Peace in their will. It’s actually quite easy to do and an excellent option for many people, regardless of their financial situation. I’m happy to talk to people about it so they can decide if it’s right for them.

I look forward to seeing many of you in the coming year. With a grateful heart, thank you for believing in, and supporting, the mission of Our Lady of Peace.

God bless.

On the wings of love: The 2017 Butterfly Release

Events

This year’s butterfly release gathered more than 400 people. Families, friends, volunteers, neighbors, staff and residents all attended this special event on Aug. 10. More than $25,000 was raised.

Board Member Steve Sims and CEO Joe Stanislav opened by welcoming friends and offering a blessing. Bereavement Coordinator Debbie Swanson spoke about how the hope in grief lies in the fact that, like the butterfly, it can be transformative, offering us new ways of looking at and experiencing life. Spiritual Care Director Amy Cotter offered closing remarks over the faint chords of a bagpipe. Guests enjoyed refreshments, prayer, music and – most importantly – the gift of the butterflies, which symbolize the release of the soul.

For staff, the gathering provided an opportunity to see cherished families.

“It is so rewarding to reconnect with friends and family members of someone who we cared for – to share memories, acknowledge their loss and reaffirm our support as they move forward in their lives,” said Nancy Larson, Director of Hospice and Home Care.

Revisiting memories of a loved one’s death – and sometimes returning to the place of that loved one’s death – may bring feelings that we would rather not address. It reaffirms not only to the families but to the staff at Our Lady of Peace the meaningfulness of what we do.

Butterflies are frequently mentioned as “signs of after-death-communication.” They are a spiritual symbol for life after death because of the transformation of the caterpillar who crawls here on earth, to a chrysalis at rest, to a beautiful butterfly who flies in the sky. As the butterfly-release invitation stated: “Just when the caterpillar thought the world was over, it became a butterfly.”

A big thanks to all who attended, donated, volunteered and planned this beautiful celebration.

7th annual luncheon raises nearly $100,000

Events

On Thursday, May 11, we gathered together for our seventh annual Our Lady of Peace Luncheon held at the Envision Catering and Hospitality Center in Oakdale. The event began with a warm welcome from Matthew Stafford, Director of Nursing, and a blessing led by Father Abraham George. Volunteer Coordinator Kim Perez spoke about the vital impact volunteers have on sustaining our mission.

A video produced by Heather Zenk, Development Assistant, portrayed the love and care of everyday activities of the volunteers at Our Lady of Peace. The Children’s Choir from Annunciation School and Parish serenaded the audience with songs of joy while volunteers received gifts from the staff at Our Lady of Peace.

To conclude the luncheon, Lisa Sweeney, Director of Development, shared a heartfelt story about losing her father and the importance of the peace, comfort and closeness that a private room gave her family during their last moments with him.

We are pleased to announce that this year’s event raised close to $100,000 to provide semi-private rooms for the patients and families and toward general operations of Our Lady of Peace.

Thanks to our wonderful sponsors, table host, guests, staff and volunteers who made this happen.

We would especially like to express our sincere gratitude to the family of Betty Rouleau. In her memory, their gift of $10,000 was provided to match donations made that day. Their generosity doubled each gift while furthering our mission of providing end of life care at no charge.

Thank you, sponsors and table hosts!

These generous sponsors funded the annual Our Lady of Peace Luncheon, allowing every donation to directly benefit Our Lady of Peace Home.
